

Please do not water down this wonderful bill. FINALLY, my husband and I can have a quiet evening at home without constantly being bothered by unwanted telemarketers. Before the Telephone Privacy Act, we were receiving no less than 10 calls a night! That sounds unbelievable, doesn't it?! We got to the point that we cringed when the phone rang!

Thank you for listening.
Rosemary and Thomas L. Lewis